Hymn in Procession

Hymn 362

Holy, Holy, Holy

Opening Acclamation

BCP 355

Presider Alleluia. Christ is Risen.

People The Lord is risen indeed. Alleluia.

Collect for Purity

BCP 355

Almighty God, to you all hearts are open, all desires known, and from you no secrets are hid: Cleanse the thoughts of our hearts by the inspiration of your Holy Spirit, that we may perfectly love you, and worthily magnify your holy Name; through Christ our Lord. Amen.

Gloria

Collect of the Day

BCP 224

Presider The Lord be with you.

People And also with you.

Presider Let us pray.

Almighty and everlasting God, you have given to us your servants grace, by the confession of a true faith, to acknowledge the glory of the eternal Trinity, and in the power of your divine Majesty to worship the Unity: Keep us steadfast in this faith and worship, and bring us at last to see you in your one and eternal glory, O Father; who with the Son and the Holy Spirit live and reign, one God, for ever and ever. Amen.

The Lessons

Old Testament

Proverbs 8:1-4, 22-31

Lector A Reading from th

Does not wisdom call, and does not understanding raise her voice? On the heights, beside the way, at the crossroads she takes her stand; beside the gates in front of the town, at the entrance of the portals she cries out: "To you, O people, I call, and my cry is to all that live. The Lord created me at the beginning of his work, the first of his acts of long ago. Ages ago I was set up, at the first, before the beginning of the earth. When there were no depths I was brought forth, when there were no springs abounding with water. Before the mountains had been shaped, before the hills, I was brought forth-- when he had not yet made earth and fields, or the world's first bits of soil. When he established the heavens, I was there, when he drew a circle on the face of the deep, when he made firm the skies above, when he established the fountains of the deep, when he assigned to the sea its limit, so that the waters might not transgress his command, when he marked out the foundations of the earth, then I was beside him, like a master worker; and I was daily his delight, rejoicing before him always, rejoicing in his inhabited world and delighting in the human race."

Lector Hear what the Spirit is saying to God's people.

People Thanks be to God.

The Gospel

John 16:12-15

Gospeler The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to John.

People Glory to you, Lord Christ.

Jesus said to the disciples, "I still have many things to say to you, but you cannot bear them now. When the Spirit of truth comes, he will guide you into all the truth; for he will not speak on his own, but will speak whatever he hears, and he will declare to you the things that are to come. He will glorify me, because he will take what is mine and declare it to you. All that the Father has is mine. For this reason I said that he will take what is mine and declare it to you."

Gospeler The Gospel of the Lord.

People Praise to you, Lord Christ.

The Homily

The Rev'd Marriane Allison

Nicene Creed

BCP 358

We believe in one God,
the Father, the Almighty,
maker of heaven and earth,
of all that is, seen and unseen.

We believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ,
the only Son of God,
eternally begotten of the Father,
God from God, Light from Light,
true God from true God,
begotten, not made,
of one Being with the Father.

Through him all things were made.

For us and for our salvation

he came down from heaven:
by the power of the Holy Spirit
he became incarnate from the Virgin Mary,
and was made man.

For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate;
he suffered death and was buried.

On the third day he rose again in accordance with the Scriptures;
he ascended into heaven

and is seated at the right hand of the Father.

He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead, and his kingdom will have no end.

We believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son.
With the Father and the Son he is worshiped and glorified.
He has spoken through the Prophets.
We believe in one holy catholic and apostolic Church.
We acknowledge one baptism for the forgiveness of sins.
We look for the resurrection of the dead,
and the life of the world to come. Amen.

Prayer II

BCP 385

In the course of the silence after each bidding, the People offer their own prayers, either silently or aloud.

Intercessor I ask your prayers for God's people throughout the world; for our Bishops, +Sean our Presiding Bishop, +Diana our Bishop, for this gathering; and for all ministers and people.
Pray for the Church.

Silence

Intercessor I ask your prayers for peace; for goodwill among nations; and for the well-being of all people.
Pray for justice and peace.

Silence

Intercessor I ask your prayers for the poor, the sick, the hungry, the oppressed, and those in prison.
Pray for those in any need or trouble, especially (nn.)

Silence

Intercessor I ask your prayers for all who seek God, or a deeper knowledge of him.
Pray that they may find and be found by him.

Silence

Intercessor I ask your prayers for the departed, especially (nn.)
Pray for those who have died.

Silence

Intercessor Praise God for those in every generation in whom Christ has been honored. Pray that we may have grace to glorify Christ in our own day.

Silence

The Presider adds a concluding collect.

The Peace

BCP 360

Presider The peace of the Lord be always with you.

People And also with you.

Birthday Prayer

BCP 830

Watch over thy child, O Lord, as their days increase; bless and guide them wherever they may be. Strengthen them when they stand, comfort them when discouraged or sorrowful; raise them up if they fall; and in their hearts may thy peace which passeth understanding abide all the days of their lives; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Anniversary Prayer

BCP 431

O God, you have so consecrated the covenant of marriage that in it is represented the spiritual unity between Christ and his Church: Send therefore your blessing upon these your servants, that they may so love, honor, and cherish each other in faithfulness and patience, in wisdom and true godliness, that their home may be a haven of blessing and peace; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen.

Hymn 304

I come with joy to meet my Lord (vs. 1-2)"

Eucharistic Prayer A

Presider The Lord be with you.

People And also with you.

Presider Lift up your hearts.

People We lift them to the Lord.

Presider Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

People It is right to give him thanks and praise.

Presider It is right, and a good and joyful thing, always and everywhere to give thanks to you, Father Almighty, Creator of heaven and earth. For with your co-eternal Son and Holy Spirit, you are one God, one Lord, in Trinity of Persons and in Unity of Being; and we celebrate the one and equal glory of you, O Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit. Therefore we praise you, joining our voices with Angels and Archangels and with all the company of heaven, who for ever sing this hymn to proclaim the glory of your Name:

Presider and People

Sanctus

S 124

Holy, Holy, Holy Lord, God of power and might, heaven and earth are full of your glory.

Hosanna in the highest.

Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord.

Hosanna in the highest.

The people stand or kneel.

Then the Presider continues

Holy and gracious Father: In your infinite love you made us for yourself, and, when we had fallen into sin and become subject to evil and death, you, in your mercy, sent Jesus Christ, your only and eternal Son, to share our human nature, to live and die as one of us, to reconcile us to you, the God and Father of all.

He stretched out his arms upon the cross, and offered himself, in obedience to your will, a perfect sacrifice for the whole world.

At the following words concerning the bread, the Presider is to hold it, or to lay a hand upon it; and at the words concerning the cup, to hold or place a hand upon the cup and any other vessel containing wine to be consecrated.

On the night he was handed over to suffering and death, our Lord Jesus Christ took bread; and when he had given thanks to you, he broke it, and gave it to his disciples, and said, "Take, eat: This is my Body, which is given for you. Do this for the remembrance of me."

After supper he took the cup of wine; and when he had given thanks, he gave it to them, and said, "Drink this, all of you: This is my Blood of the new Covenant, which is shed for you and for many for the forgiveness of sins. Whenever you drink it, do this for the remembrance of me."

Therefore we proclaim the mystery of faith:

Presider and People

Christ has died. Christ is risen.

Christ will come again.

The Presider continues

We celebrate the memorial of our redemption, O Father, in this sacrifice of praise and thanksgiving. Recalling his death, resurrection, and ascension, we offer you these gifts.

Sanctify them by your Holy Spirit to be for your people the Body and Blood of your Son, the holy food and drink of new and unending life in him. Sanctify us also that we may faithfully receive this holy Sacrament, and serve you in unity, constancy, and peace; and at the last day bring us with all your saints into the joy of your eternal kingdom.

All this we ask through your Son Jesus Christ: By him, and with him, and in him, in the unity of the Holy Spirit all honor and glory is yours, Almighty Father, now and for ever. AMEN.

Presider

And now, as our Savior Christ has taught us, we are bold to say,

All Our Father, who art in heaven,
hallowed be thy Name,
thy kingdom come,
thy will be done,
on earth as it is in heaven.

Give us this day our daily bread.

And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us.

And lead us not into temptation,
but deliver us from evil.

For thine is the kingdom,
and the power, and the glory for ever and ever. Amen.

Breaking of the Bread

Fraction Anthem

S-161

Lamb of God, you take away the sins of the world:

Lamb of God, you take away the sins of the world:
have mercy on us

Lamb of God, you take away the sins of the world:
grant us peace.

Presider The Gifts of God for the People of God.

Communion of the People

Communion will be offered from the altar rail. Please stand or kneel as is your custom. The bread will be placed on your palm. Gluten-free wafers are available; please indicate to the priest if you require this alternative. Those who do not wish to receive communion are welcome to come forward for a blessing, indicated by crossing your arms over your chest.

Communion Hymn

Let all mortal flesh keep silence

Hymn 324

Communion

Post-Communion Prayer

BCP 366

All: Almighty and everliving God, we thank you for feeding us with the spiritual food of the most precious Body and Blood of your Son our Savior Jesus Christ; and for assuring us in these holy mysteries that we are living members of the Body of your Son, and heirs of your eternal kingdom.
And now, Father, send us out to do the work you have given us to do, to love and serve you as faithful witnesses of Christ our Lord.
To him, to you, and to the Holy Spirit,
be honor and glory, now and for ever. Amen.

Want to honor loved ones or celebrate special life events? Sponsor the flowers presented on the High Altar on Sunday mornings. Sign up on the Flower Calendar on the table in the Narthex.

Votive Prayer Candles Votive candles are a way for the faithful to remember a loved one or pray for a special intention. We ask for a donation of $2 for each prayer candle to help with the cost of tending and maintaining the candles. Your gift is fully tax-deductible and is a true blessing.

Children and Teens

The Nursery is open this Sunday, June 15.

Sunday School is on break for the summer. We always welcome kids in our services. You'll find "pew support" on the kid's table in the Narthex. There is coloring, puzzles and cool seek and find books for your kid's enjoyment.

Splish Splash Summer Blast for families begins on June 29!

We're kicking off our summer with Shower of Power!

We're exploring the day of Pentecost with science experiments and art that involve wind and fire! We'll sneak in a game of water balloon toss on the lawn and finish with a popsicle fest. Join us at 11:30 am in the parish hall for lunch (bring your own). We conclude at about 1:30pm. Email Susie at scoffman@ccparish.org to register your family.

The CCP Men's Fellowship Group meets for breakfast at 8 am every Wednesday at the Lake Oswego Biscuits Café (near Kruse Way and Boones Ferry). All male parishioners, and others who may be interested, are cordially invited (and encouraged) to attend. If you have questions please feel free to contact chuckschrader@gmail.com or Fr. Brad.

Outreach Team: Compassion in Action

We have a new approved name!

Compassion and Action: not just that we feel empathy towards those who are struggling, but that we work to alleviate their suffering.

(Truly I tell you, whatever you did for one of the least of these brothers and sisters of mine, you did for me. Matthew 25:40.)

We also considered how best to meet those challenges as we were joined by a few new members in the past year, but also lost a few key people who moved on to other ways to serve. Organizing and carrying out the traditional spring auction (our primary source of funding for ministries we support) was no longer feasible.

Instead, we want to welcome you to join us next September 13th —the weekend of our traditional Homecoming—as we will offer a family-focused spaghetti supper that Saturday night. The supper itself will be open to everyone, free of any charge (thanks, Father Brad!). And after you dine, there will be an Outreach Compassion in Action fundraising event; childcare will be provided so you can relax in the moment. The catalog will be filled with delectable opportunities such as weekends at the beach or dinner for eight or . . . who knows?

Please keep your eyes on these pages for updates as our planning continues. Circle September 13th on your virtual calendars for a delicious opportunity for food, fun, and funds to support this your holy opportunity. And check out the bulletin board in the narthex for more on your Compassion in Action Team.

We also invite you to join us as a member and/or let us know how you can help with the cooking, the set-up, the take-down, and of course, any terrific possibilities you may be able to offer as one of the prized items for the Compassion in Action fundraiser.

Greetings to the members of Christ Church:

The Compassion in Action/Outreach Team is discussing a spinoff group focusing on Creation Care /climate crisis issues. This would be a new group open to anyone who would like to consider how we as a congregation can act to heal our aching climate. If you are interested, please see Caroline Malseed after church to sign up, or e-mail me at mayflower1950@hotmail.com. I will be asking for your email and phone number, and hope that we can begin meeting in a few weeks.

Proposal for Christ Church Episcopal “Green Team” (working title)

(Note that the following are suggestions and should not be viewed as definitive or limiting for the Team’s activities)

Purpose: To respond to the environmental crises facing God’s Creation; to further Christ Church’s efforts to reduce its carbon footprint; to educate parishioners about their own environmental stewardship and offer options for climate care actions; to enable the congregation to join with others who are already addressing climate change.

Areas of Activity

1. Education

Adult Book Studies focused on climate change Speakers, video series, invitations to local climate action events Discussion groups on current events related to climate policy, new technologies, support for individual efforts to reduce carbon usage Engaging youth and children in education efforts, including faith based principles or responsibility for God’s creation

2. Assessment of Christ Church’s energy usage

Working with Vestry to arrange professional assessment of heating, lighting, insulation, etc. of the building structure Working with Vestry to discuss any recommended changes or actions

3. Engagement with the Community

Researching and meeting with representatives of religious, governmental and secular groups addressing climate change to discover possibilities of involvement with already effective programs (Oregon Ecumenical Ministries, Oregon Interfaith Power and Light, etc.) Creating community fairs inviting groups active in addressing climate change to set up educational booths, publicizing to local media Developing or engaging with a local interfaith council to create common climate change targeted projects

Compassion in Action Team CCEP Food Pantry

WEEKLY UPDATE: Infant Formula and the Tualatin Food Pantry

This week we expedited a delivery of 76 pounds of donated infant formula products to the Tualatin Food Pantry. On delivery, they indicated that infant formula products were a high priority and would go out to clients the same day.

Normally, we wait until our shelves are full, but infant products are a priority for food pantries and for their clients who face daily financial challenges.

Once our CCEP Food Pantry shelves are full, we will be sending a shipment of donated food and infant products to the Tualatin Food Pantry.

The Tualatin Food Pantry supports people and families from Tualatin, Tigard, Durham, Lake Oswego, West Linn, and Wilsonville with up to five days of food twice a month. Last year, they served 10,294 households, and with your help, we can continue to support them too.

Your food donations play a role in helping people to deal with hunger and we thank you for caring!

How You Can Help: When you are grocery shopping, please pick up some additional items to help continue our support to the emergency food pantries in our area.

We are requesting a variety of canned food products, including canned fruit, soups, beans along with dried goods such as cereal, flour, rice, beans and pasta. Infant formula and products are just as important and serve a critical part of our mission.

Please place your donated canned and dried food items along with infant food products in the Food Pantry basket in the narthex.

Please drop off your bags of food donations in the lobby before each Sunday service or during the week on Mondays - Thursdays between 9-1PM.

Important: Please check the expiration dates before you donate. The Food Pantries that we support may reject expired food products. If have food that is expired, please dispose of it in a way that is environmentally responsible.

If you have any questions, please contact: Steve Whittaker steve@whittpho.com

From On Common Ground, Christ Church

"I was a stranger and you took me in...", Matthew 25: 35-41 is a quote oft repeated by active Christians. How can we heed Jesus' call to assist the persecuted stranger in the form of today's refugees, currently threatened with exile? Do we act or merely wring our hands?

Below we have listed organizations that are actively working for refugees. Please pick one to help you form your response of turning compassion into action. Thank you from OCG.

Habitat for Humanity

Announcing a new Re-Store Opening near Bridgeport Village

The 18,500-square-foot Tigard store, located at Building C, 16160 SW Upper Boones Ferry Road, will open to the public in spring 2025.

This new ReStore will be Habitat's fourth store location and sells new and gently used furniture, home decor, appliances, lighting, building materials and more at discounted prices to help fund Habitat's homebuilding and home repair programs in the Portland region, including their latest Lake Grove Project in Lake Oswego.

We could use your help!

Want to help with our newest ReStore? We are looking for volunteers to help us with special projects, store launch, and ongoing support of our new ReStore location in Tigard. If you'd like to be involved.

Generating more than $5 million each year to support Habitat's homebuilding and home repair programs in the Portland region, the ReStores currently serve more than 44,000 customers and divert over 8,000 tons of reusable materials from Portland landfills annually. The existing ReStores are in Beaverton, Gresham and Portland; customers can also purchase from the ReStores online.

The new location in Tigard also signifies Habitat for Humanity's commitment to supporting the west side of the metro region. Earlier this year, the organization began construction on two Habitat for Humanity developments: a 23-home community in the Lake Grove neighborhood of Lake Oswego and a 16-home community in King City.

Anyone interested in donating to the Portland Region ReStores can schedule a pickup time and submit photos of donations here <https://tinyurl.com/57ara8jb>.
